Item-ID 5372
Type painting(pai)

artwork data
description 1	A pair of arm defenses, made in the Italian system, is hanging at the pillar in the center of the scene.
description 2	The men to the left and to the right of the lady wear separate elbow protections upon a ring-armour shirt.
description 3	The abdomen part of the left and the right type-III breastplate consists of several lames.
description 4	At the upper ends of the hanging arm and leg defenses the interiorly attached leather straps are clearly visible.
title	Scene from the right wing of the Albrechtsaltar.
master	Meister des Albrechtsaltar
date	1437-39
material	wood/paint
production city	Vienna?
production country	Austria
storage location	Stift Klosterneuburg (Sebastianskapelle)
storage country	AT
storage city	Klosterneuburg
image by	http://www.stift-klosterneuburg.at/tourismus/spezialfuehrungen-fuer-erwachsene/

main side

